Why Should I Support the Utah Foundation?

Because public policy matters. You will...

1. Support independent, nonpartisan public-policy research.
2. Inform research with industry insights.
3. Choose the Foundation's research topics.
4. Access new research before the public.
5. Network with other community leaders.
6. Attend exclusive events.
7. Receive recognition for your contribution.

"Utah is at its strongest when decisions are guided by rigorous analysis. The Utah Foundation plays a vital role in grounding public debate in facts, elevating the conversation, and helping policymakers, business leaders, and Utah residents build a better future. I'm grateful for the foundation's work in our state."

– Governor Spencer J. Cox

Who Are We?

The Utah Foundation works to inform and engage Utahns with illuminating, independent, nonpartisan public-policy research. This research is needed now more than ever.

Informed Utahns make better decisions, and decisions on important public policy issues affect us all. By helping our community stay informed on crucial issues, the Utah Foundation helps to ensure that Utah remains one of the greatest states in which to live, work, and run a business.

This research focuses on critical issues such as taxation, transportation, housing, health care, education, energy, and quality of life. In addition, recent studies have included major signature projects, such as the 2024 Utah Priorities Project and the 2025 Social Capital Index.
